

RiteCare of Utah Speech Language Pathologist Job Description

Responsibilities

Speech Pathologists develop intensive individual therapy plans based on best practices. Speech Pathologists will provide clinical services to children and their families to include comprehensive evaluations, speech and or language therapy, and family education and consultation. She/he will collaborate with therapists, assistants, teachers, parents and other medical or community care providers to meet the communication needs of the clients. This is a non-exempt position.

Education

Masters degree in Speech Pathology or Communication Disorders

Required License and Certifications

Current Utah License as Speech Language Pathologist

Current American Speech Hearing Association (ASHA) Certificate of Clinical Competence (CCC)

Current Healthcare provider CPR certification

Compensation Range

$25.82 per hour-$41.35 per hour commensurate with experience

Email Resume and Cover Letter to:

Mary Woodard, Board Chair

ritecareboardchair@ritecareutah.org